

March

March 9, 10:00 - 11:30am - Koffee Kallah : Getting Started in Jewish Genealogy Discovering Your Ancestry and Navigating the Blocks Along That Journey, with Joel Spector, Board of the Jewish Genealogical and Archival Society of Greater Phila.

March 10, 7:00pm - HIAS PA presents "The Truth About Immigration: An Evening with Zeke Hernandez." Strong opinions are held on both sides – whether immigrants help or hurt the economy, and what, if any, impact immigrants have on crime and national security. But what are the facts? The Wharton School professor will engage in dialogue about immigration myths. Registration required.

March 10, WZO Elections Kickoff - We have a short window to shape the priorities and budget of the Jewish People for the next 5 years! Join together the night voting opens for the US World Zionist Congress Elections. We will hear stories about the impact of our votes and cast our votes together for the Vote Reform Slate. Please share widely with your congregations and communities to take a powerful action together for Democracy, Peace, and Security in Israel. Registration required.

March 15, a Clergy Variety Show for Purim - Do you like juggling? Comedy? Song? Your favorite Cantor will perform on stage LIVE, with other area clergy to raise money for our sister community in Israel, Kibbutz Alumim. Performance is at Main Line Reform Temple, 410 Montgomery Ave. Registration required.

March 16, 10:00am - Hands Only CPR - Empower yourself to save a life. Learn Hands-Only CPR, with Beth David member Stephanie Austin, advocate and volunteer with the American Heart Association.
