

Together with Shirat Hayam, Cantor Goodlev will be holding services at the beach behind the Ventnor library, July 11. Devotion by the Ocean includes music, prayer, inspiration and joy on the sand during Kabbalat Shabbat services starting at 5:30pm.

Ed and Judy Grinspan will open their shore home for dinner guests at the conclusion of services; (3 short blocks away!). RSVP for dinner is required - (Ed and Judy need to know how much food to prepare! You can bring something if you like...kosher style please.)

Services with Jeff Saltz and Jill Cooper will also take place at Beth David at 6:30pm.

Coming Up

Pride at the Park

June 14 • 11:00 am - 4:00 pm

Show your Beth David pride while celebrating Pride!

We're staffing a table at Narberth Park and giving out slices of homemade rainbow challah to make sure everyone in our community knows that Judaism celebrates and cherishes our LGBTQ members and neighbors. There's a Skittles rainbow project sponsored by Harmony Camp! Sign up to work a shift.

Sabbat in the Park/July 4/6:30pm

Join Cantor Goodlev and her family for a tiny taste of Shabbat at the Narberth Park on July 4th; challah & grape juice (pre-wine!) and community. Stay for the fireworks. If you're observing a yahrzeit contact the office. office@bdavid.org.

Tisha B'Av Gathering

August 3 • 10:00 am - 11:00 pm

Because the World Isn't Okay Right Now

Judaism emphasizes hope, not despair, in the face of difficult world events. But before we can find our way to hope, Judaism teaches us to begin with catharsis: acknowledging our grief and our fears about the world. Tisha B'Av is the traditional Jewish day of mourning for the destruction of the ancient Temple in Jerusalem, but generations of Jews have expanded the meaning of this day to reflect the pain of other moments of Jewish history, too. Join Rabbi Kalisch for discussion, singing, a brief meditation, and inspiration from the Biblical Book of Lamentations. No prior knowledge required. Because Tisha B'Av is traditionally a fast day, we will not be serving food or coffee.

Community

Ages 2 – 7

August 11 – August 29

Harmony Camp is back! A creative program where kids can explore art, nature, music, dance, science, play, and more. When most camps have ended, we're still going! The perfect way to wrap up summer before school begins. At Harmony Camp, you can expect:

- Low camper-to-teacher ratio
- Inclusive community (including interfaith and LGBTQ+ families)
- Jewish Values
- Compassionate staff

Harmony is designed to meet the needs of families with sign up week-by-week, half day options, and before and after care options to build your own daily schedule.
